2024 MTSU HIGH SCHOOL ENTREPRENEURSHIP FAIR

Introducing an excellent opportunity for high school students interested in entrepreneurship to gain valuable experience and have some fun too. Students may participate individually or in teams. The maximum is four people per team. Each team will write a business profile, display their idea, and select a student to give a 90 second elevator pitch. Judges will listen to elevator pitches, review the business profiles, interview students, evaluate booth displays, and choose the winners. The top finalists will present their elevator pitch to all the students. An award ceremony will follow to recognize the top presentations.

Entrepreneurship Fair Business Profile Format (Please cover all bulleted items in your Business Profile, which should make your profile 2 pages in length. Print on the front and back of one page. Please have 10 copies printed for judges.)

I. Opportunity:

- The name of your business
- Where is your business going to be located?
- Give information about your top management team including qualifications and experience (150 words or less)
- If you have a business logo, please include it here □ Briefly describe your business (100 words or less)
- What is your motivation for starting this business? (100 words or less)
- Please give your mission statement
- Place a color photo of yourself with your product or a visualization of the product
- Under the photo, type the name of your business concept or product
- Next, type in your name, address, phone number, and email

II. Marketing:

- Is there a demand for your concept or product (describe & explain)? Have you conducted some type of a survey or market study to determine the demand or potential sales for your product or concept? Can you cite any data or statistics (locally, regionally, or even nationally) as evidence that your concept or product has marketability?
- What type of business will you be in (service, retail or manufacturing, or something else)?
- What is your target market (who do you see buying your product)? What are the advantages your concept or product would have, and what are the disadvantages when you think of the competition already out there?

III. Products & Services:

- What are you going to sell and how are you going to sell it?
- How do you plan to advertise?
- Who are you working with to develop your concept or to improve your product (i.e., teacher, parent, sibling, friends, business owner, etc.)? □ Describe the business operations (150 words or less) □ What is your implementation timeline?

IV. Financial Projections

Sources and Uses of Funds Statement

- Describe the amount of money needed to start the business and what it will be used for
- Explain how much money will be provided by the owner (equity)
- Explain how much money will need to be borrowed (debt), what the funds will be used for and who the money will be borrowed from Financial Assumptions
- Explain in detail the basis or reason for your projected income and expenses
- For example: Why do you charge what you are projecting for your product? Why are your cost of goods set at the percentage you have selected?
- As much as possible, the assumptions should be based on solid research and not just "pulled out of the air"
- Identify your sales break even, when you expect to reach it and when do you expect to be profitable
- Research and investigate, and then outline on paper some realistic ways to finance your business or concept. Having these strategies written out on paper is important, since you will be expected to present your strategies to the judges

This section should be a written narrative supporting the rationale of your start-up cost and assumptions.

V. Business Support Network

- Please compile a short list of mentors, experienced business owners, agencies, or other business resources that could offer your business advice or services that would build support for your business and help to ensure your financial success, as well as continued learning and education that is necessary to build a successful business.

Elevator Pitch with the Judges

The Interview with the judges will start with a 90-second elevator pitch from one of the students on the team. Then there will be a brief question and answer to follow. Team members should take turns answering the questions.

Booth Display at the Fair

The booth display will be judged on the creativity and professionalism of the booth display. As well as the student's appearance. Six-foot tables will be provided with two chairs per table. Please let us know ahead of time if your booth needs electricity so we can plan accordingly. Pro motional and business items are for display only, no give aways are permitted.

As you begin to formulate your strategy for entering the 2024 High School Entrepreneurship Fair, remember to consider and to build a strong case in all sections of the competition:

There are 3 scoring sections in the Entrepreneurship Fair:

I. Business Profile	worth up to 20 points
II. Elevator Pitch/Judge Q&A	60 points
III. Booth Display at the Fair	20 points

Maximum Total Points that can be awarded to a Contestant: 100 points

The Award Ceremony

An award ceremony will immediately follow the entrepreneurship fair. The winners will receive awards in the following categories: Overall 1st place, 1st Runner up, 2nd Runner up, 3rd Runner up, Social Enterprise Award, Sciences Enterprise Award, Engineering Enterprise Award, Arts Enterprise Award, Best Elevator Pitch Award, Best Display Award, and Best Written Profile Award.
